Her latest Realart effecting. "Something Different," which will be shown at the Davis theatre Wednesday and Thursday shows the young star to the beatiuful ciothes and sumptuous settings which her earlier pictures have withheld, but the same youthful ity and straightforwardness which made her so winning in "Erstwhile Susan" and ments in her wholly delightful acrees

Dorothy Dalton, in an intensely human drama of domestic life, "Guilty of Low, will be the second attraction." This pic ture was adapted from a successful play by Avery Hopwood. Miss Dalton has the role of Thems Miller, a New Effand girl who let penniless by the death of her father, goe governess in the home of Mrs the latter's brother, Norris Townsend. fails in love with Thelms and his father trying to keep them apart, sends Norriabroad. Upon his return, Theima is about to become a mother. She compels him to marry her at the point of the revolver, then leaves him. Years afterwards Norris comes upon her as a school teacher in a little New England town and dramatic event finally effects a recon-fliation between them. A news weekly wil lalso be shown.

The World Almaune The 1920 presidential election returns from every state in the Union, as wall as the 1920 United States census population figures for every state, and for every place of $5,000 or more inhabitants in this country are contained in The World Almanac for 1921. Past population and pass census figures are also in the book, which is a complete work of reference as to the commerce, industry, crops and pothe whole world. The financial, rallway and trade mattetics are full and varied, all prominent forth in the chronology and metrology. The sporting and weather records cover many years past. The relicious statistics include all denominations. Amone other notable features are a biographic dictionary, tables of attitules, postal data: great national highways: law guide: arsummaries of presidential elections, from 1856 to date: population area and debts, etc., of states and cities of the United

In the selection of his players David W. Griffith, the master of screen pro-ducers, has universally used the most excellent care, so as to assure faithful nterpretations. No better example of his excellent judgment in the choice of the interpreters for the screen lovers could be died than in the players he presents in the latest masterpiece. "The "Love Flower," which United Artists release will be the feature at Breed theatre today. Among the players in this unusually dramatic love at --- of the South Res Islands are none others than Richar MasQuarrie Anders Randolph, Florence Short, Crawford Kent, Adolphe Lestina William James and Jack Manning, "The Love Flower" is filled with an endlessamount of action and suspense and is conceded to be one of the most dramatic sories ever produced by Mr. Griffith.
